BRECON FATSTOCK SALE REPORT
TUESDAY 5th JUNE 2018

Prime Lambs (564)

A much smaller entry than this week with a 15p/kg difference in the averages. However, I must congratulate vendors for the quality of lambs on offer and it paid off by the premium prices. Plenty of pens sold to 262pkg with the best bred lambs making 270pkg plus. Topping at 281.5pkg for a pen of 40kg Texel x Lambs with medium weights averaging 265pkg. A small entry of under 36kg topped at 265pkg, averaging 255pkg. It is pleasing to see many new customers travelling from a distance to take advantage of our trade in Brecon as it is as good as anywhere. We are expecting a good trade next week as it the last week of the Religious Festival WE NEED MORE LAMBS to support our 7 buyers.

7 Buyers in attendance

577 CULL SHEEP

Well what can I say "A TRADE TO REMEMBER" this weeks trade would be the best average we have ever seen in Brecon. It was simply on fire from the first to the last sold. Pen after pen sold over £100. Big, Fat, Small and lean were wanted. Topping at £125 for a pen of Texel ewes. Suffolk x ewes were up to £124. A pen of welsh mountain ewes made £79.50 with hill bred ewes averaging £68.

Next week we will require a much larger entry as demand will be strong ready for the festival. Keep bringing sheep to Brecon as we can sell them as good as anywhere.
